

Interim Director of Youth Ministry Cross Roads Presbyterian Church

Cross Roads Presbyterian Church is searching for a 1/4 time Interim Director of Youth Ministry (IDYM) to facilitate programming for youth in grades 7-12. The IDYM will report to the Head of Staff with guidance from the Christian Education Committee. She/He will work collaboratively with other staff and volunteers to plan and implement activities and spiritual learning opportunities for the church's youth.

Responsibilities include:

- Providing leadership for youth worship and education, including Sunday mornings and other studies as deemed appropriate.
- Planning and conducting a monthly fellowship, service, and/or mission activity.
- Organizing youth summer mission trips.
- Facilitating regular communication with youth and their families via in-person contact, email, phone, text, and social media.
- Preparing a monthly report detailing ongoing youth activities and anticipated programs for approval from Christian Education and the Cross Roads Session when required.
- Managing program spending, including staying on-budget and submitting expense reports.

Primary qualifications include:

- A commitment to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior with a mature faith.
- Experience in church life and involvement in Christian education.
- A degree in Christian education, youth ministry, education, or equivalent experience is desirable.
- Strong organizational and communication skills with an outgoing personality.
- Must be able to pass PA Criminal Background Check, Act 33/34 clearances, FBI Clearance.

Additional details and salary information are available upon request by contacting Rev. Sarah Robbins at 412-715-3207 (or sarahrobbins1025@gmail.com).

Interested applicants should submit a resume to Cross Roads Presbyterian Church, 2310 Haymaker Road, Pittsburgh, PA 15146, Attention: Rev. Sarah Robbins.