

MINIMUM 2017 TERMS OF CALL FOR MINISTERS, PITTSBURGH PRESBYTERY

The Commission on Ministry, at its meeting held on June 28, 2016, moved that the minimum terms of call for installed and temporary pastors serving churches, effective January 1, 2017, be as follows:

The minimum terms of call approved for 2017 include:

Salary of $37,364 + free use of the manse + cost of utilities.

OR

“Effective salary” of $51,546 to be divided among cash salary, housing allowance, and utilities, as the minister requests. The Commission on Ministry has defined utilities as fuel, electric, sewer and water, trash collection, and basic telephone.

These minimums reflect a 2% increase over 2016. The yearly adjustment of minimum salary requirements is designed to help our pastors keep up with changes in the cost of living in our region. We hope that all congregations will consider merit raises for pastors in addition to the cost of living adjustment.

In addition to salary, employing churches will

- Provide reimbursement of the medical deductible of the Benefits plan, up to 2% of effective salary, or reimburse the co-pays for health plan costs to the dollar equivalent of the 2% deductible.
- provide travel reimbursement at the rate allowable under I.R.S. regulations
- grant two weeks study leave, cumulative to six weeks, regardless of hours worked per week
- provide a study leave allowance of $1500 per year cumulative to $4500, regardless of hours worked per week
- provide four weeks of vacation time for all pastors employed 20 hours or more per week
- provide parental and family leave for all pastors, regardless of hours worked per week. See the attached new Parental/Family Leave Policy adopted by COM at our June meeting.

Prices for 2017 Board of Pensions medical coverage, including new menu options, are forthcoming and will be sent to all Pittsburgh Presbytery churches and pastors as soon as they are available.

If you have questions regarding these new terms, you are welcome to direct them to the Commission on Ministry Office (412-697-9210) of Pittsburgh Presbytery.

For more information about the redesign of the Board of Pension plans for 2017, a thorough summary is available online at:

<http://www.pensions.org/AvailableResources/BookletsandPublications/Documents/2017BenefitsPlanRedesign.pdf>