

ORDINATION EXAMINATIONS OVERVIEW

Commission on Preparation for Ministry
Pittsburgh Presbytery

The Presbyterian Church (USA) administers ordination examinations as a reasonably uniform (standard) process for assessing the readiness of a candidate to begin service as ministers. According to representatives of the denomination's Committee on Cooperative Examinations, the purpose of these examinations is to evaluate a Candidate's ability to utilize skills necessary for effective ministry. It is not the purpose of the examinations to assess the theological orthodoxy of a Candidate. That is the role of the Commission on Preparation for Ministry.

Specific details, including the purpose, the role, and the administration of the five examinations

- § Bible Content (pg. 24)
- § Bible Exegesis (pg. 31)
- § Church Polity (pg. 40)
- § Theological Competence (pg. 45)
- § Worship & Sacraments (pg. 55)

are outlined in the Handbook on Standard Ordination Examinations published by the PC(USA) and available online at: <http://www.pcusa.org/get/resources/resource/2758/>

Following is the Table of Contents as a quick reference guide:

Introduction	1
Why Standard Ordination Examinations?	2
Ordination Exams for a Digital Age	5
Administration of exams	7
Timing of Exams in the Preparation Process	8
When and Where the Exams are Given?	8
Registering for the Exams	11
Preparing for the Exams	19
Online Administration of the Exams	20
Areas of examination	23
Bible Content Exam	24
Bible Exegesis Exam	31
Church Polity Exam	40
Theological Competence Exam	45
Worship and Sacraments Exam	55
Taking the senior exams	67
The Online Examination Process	68
Style Guide for Online Exams	75
Issues Specific to the Exegesis Exam	78
FAQs for Quick Reference	82
Evaluation of senior exams	89
Standards of Evaluation	90
The Evaluation Process	93
Review of Exams and Evaluations	95
Reflections from a Reader	96
Conclusion	99